

Tip of the Month September 2009

Transition time can be hard for students.

Give extra support to kids as they move between schools or grades to help prevent stress-related behavior problems—like drinking.

For more tips and information visit www.21reasons.org

