

Parents are taking action to prevent underage drinking, today more than ever. Camping together is a great way to bond and strengthen communication with your kids.

Remember:

- Make sure that any alcohol is not accessible to youth
- Reinforce the rules and consequences of underage drinking
- Check in with your kids often
- Know where they are going, when they will be back, and who they will be with

WOW, TIMES HAVE CHANGED!

In fact, according to a recent survey, most high school students actually don't drink.
